Ch'enghsien (120-48, 29-36) and Yungchiang (120-01, 28-54). The following control measures are being used:

- a. The authorities are restricting young men to their native areas and are urging and compelling those between 17 and 26 years of age to join the army as "volunteers".
  - b. The authorities are enforcing rigid travel controls on all persons regardless of age or sex, and travel permits are required for all trips. Sentries are posted at check points along all roads with youth corps members on duty during the day and regular troops during the night.
8. In early March Chinese Communist authorities in Shanghai decided that all public organs should pay employees their entire salary in money rather than paying part in such commodities as fuel, cloth, vegetable oil and salt. The new system will go into effect in early June but some of the agencies are trying to comply with the regulation in March.
9. The Chinese Communist authorities in Shanghai are planning to convene a conference of representatives of all circles in early April. This will be the second series of such conferences. P'AN Han-nien (潘漢年), LIU Chi'ang-sheng (劉昌勝), HU Chueh-wen (胡厥文), HSIU T'ao-hsin (許陶新) and TS'AO Man-chih (曹漫之) are in charge of preparations for this conference.
10. In early March civilian laborers from the Chinchiang (118-34, 24-54), Nanan (118-31, 24-56), Huian (118-48, 26-03), Anch'i (118-12, 25-03) and Yungchiun (118-13, 25-16) areas were excavating caves day and night in the mountainous area from Anch'i to Yungchiun, a distance of about 35 miles.
11. On 12 March a division of the 25 Army moved from the Foochow area to Huian. On 14 March another division of the 25 Army was moving from Changchou (117-42, 24-32) to a different location. On 15 March headquarters of the 25 Army moved from Kuank'ou (117-59, 24-36) to the Chinchiang (118-34, 24-54) area.
- China
12. About 5 March Chinese Communist troops invaded and captured Tungchi (121-55, 28-46) Island north of Tach'en.
13. In early March militiamen along the southeast coast of China were being asked by Chinese Communist military authorities at public meetings whether they will attack Taiwan.***
14. On 15 March a regiment of the 65 Division, 22 Army moved from the Ningpo area to the T'schuatao (122-17, 29-48), Chuchiachien (122-25, 29-53) and P'ut'oshan (122-24, 30-00) areas.
15. On 16 March the 306 Regiment****, 103 Division, 35 Army was moving south from the Loch'ing (120-57, 28-08) area to Juian (120-33, 27-37); from there the unit will soon move to Kuat'ou (120-33, 27-37). KU Ting-wen (谷定文), commander of a battalion of the 308 Regiment, 103 Division was sent by division headquarters to Kuat'ou to confer with the commander of the 188 Regiment, 63 Division, 21 Army on the matter of the 308 Regiment taking over the area of responsibility now assigned to the 188 Regiment. It was decided that the 308 Regiment will move to the P'ingyang (120-33, 27-42) area and remain there until the 188 Regiment moves to a new area north of Kuat'ou.
